

MTNA

MUSIC TEACHERS NATIONAL ASSOCIATION

Take a trip down Route 66 as MTNA heads to Albuquerque, New Mexico, for this year's National Conference, March 20–24, 2010, at the Hyatt Regency and Albuquerque Convention Center! This year's conference highlights include:

- Evening concerts by pianist Kevin Kenner and cellist William De Rosa, the American Pianist Association Fellows and the winners of the Canadian and United States Chopin Piano Competitions
- MTNA Student Competitions
- Pedagogy Saturday
- Educational sessions
- Teaching demonstrations and master classes
- Industry showcases and Exhibit Hall demonstrations
- Nearly 100 exhibitors

MTNA is currently calling for Poster Sessions, as MTNA will provide the opportunity for selected individuals to present research, either through research papers or studio/pedagogy projects. Applicants must e-mail submissions to mtnanet@mtna.org by November 1, 2009. For more information, visit http://members.mtna.org/conference2010/poster\_sessions.html.

MTNA is also accepting proposals for Collegiate Chapter sessions until November 1, 2009. Submissions must include an abstract for a 50-minute session, names and degree status of the presenters, collegiate chapter officers and faculty advisors, equipment needs, group photo of the presenters and a session description not exceeding 35 words. For more information, contact MTNA at (888) 512-5278 or e-mail mtnanet@mtna.org.

For more details regarding the 2010 Conference, visit <http://www.mtna.org/>.

Hope you can make it!